

David Henderson & Kirsten Boston: City, Sea and Countryside

Invitation to the Pittenweem Arts Festival 2011

Where? Stage of the New Town Hall in Session Street

When? Saturday 6th to Sunday 14th August 2011, 10am – 5pm every day

Preview night: Friday 5th August 7 – 9pm (you're most welcome)

For the third year running, I'll be back at the Pittenweem Arts Festival, which continues to be one of the most exciting places to show work in Scotland with some 25,000 visitors to the village over its ten days. As last year, I will be sharing a stage with Kirsten Boston, my fellow North Berwick artist, who doubles as my picture framer.

Last Days of the Clyde

David Henderson

This year's show is a mixture of city, sea and countryside. Glasgow and Edinburgh feature, together with the open waters and silver sands of the Western Isles, a misty morning on Loch Lomond and my continuing series on the Cairngorms. Other landscapes feature the East Neuk, Plockton and Skye. Also on show is a series of smaller paintings.

Kirsten will be showing more of her east coast seascapes and her detailed paintings of plants and animals.

Our venue is number 62. This is just off Charles Street and backs on to the main car park on the village sports field.

I'm looking forward to it and I'd be delighted to see you either at the preview or any time during the week. I'll be around most of the time.

Diary Date: North Berwick Art Fair 8th – 13th August 2011, Blackadder Church, High Street

See more of our work at the first ever North Berwick Art Fair. This adds a new dimension to the growing popularity of Fringe by the Sea, the performing arts event that takes the Edinburgh Fringe to the coast. See more at www.northberwickartfair.net
